MEMBERSHIP LUNCHEON

Join us for another great membership luncheon program!

Patricia M. Steed, Executive Director, Central Florida Regional Planning Council, will discuss regional planning and Polk County's unique position in these efforts. She will also share growth projections for our area. You don't want to miss it!

Pat Steed is the Executive Director of the Central Florida Regional Planning Council which covers the counties of DeSoto, Hardee, Highlands, Okeechobee and Polk and represents 30 local governments. She has lived and worked in the Heartland region since 1982. Pat has over 30 years of management and professional planning experience in regional, county, city and private sector organizations. During her Central Florida planning career she has served as Planning Director for Polk County, Planning Manager for the City of Lakeland, Transportation Director of the Polk County Transportation Planning Organization and Project Director for the consulting firm of PBS&J. Pat has served for 10 years in various leadership roles in community, countywide and regional visioning efforts. She serves on numerous statewide committees on transportation and land use.
