

For Immediate Release

CONTACT: Thomas Dowling
863-292-3744 • tdowling@polk.edu

News from Polk State College

PSC Celebrates Black History Month with Events Throughout February

Polk State College will celebrate Black History Month with art, drama, music and food. All the campus events are free. Various Black History Month activities are hosted and sponsored by members of PSC's Art Committee, PSC's Student Government Associations and the Black Student Union.

Here's the schedule:

Feb. 1-28

Art Exhibits

The work of area artists will be on display in:

- the Art Gallery in the LTB building, Lakeland campus
- the Fine Arts Gallery in the Fine Arts building, Winter Haven campus
- the Administration Building, Winter Haven campus

Feb. 8, 11 am – 1 pm

Black History Month Kick-Off and Ethnic Cuisine Extravaganza

LAC Courtyard, Lakeland campus

Feb. 17, 11 am – 1pm

Ethnic Cuisine Extravaganza

WST-126, Winter Haven campus

Feb. 19, 6 to 8 pm

Gospel Extravaganza

The concert will feature PSC's Gospel Club and various community musical groups. It will be held in WST-126, Winter Haven campus.

Feb. 22, 6 to 8 pm

Art of Dramatic Presentation

The performance will feature theatrical group Nommo Drama. It will be held in LTB Theater (Room LTB-1100) on the Lakeland campus.

Feb. 26, 6:30 to 8 pm

"African X'Clusive & Coffee House Talent

WST-126, Winter Haven campus

For more information call contact Lucille Hadley at 297-1010, ext. 5140 or Val. Baker at 297-1095.