

Author Walker Todd to Present Free Lecture on Progress and Property Rights At Webber International University

Babson Park, Florida
For Immediate Release

As part of its series of occasional lectures, Webber International University will, in cooperation with the American Institute for Economic Research, be hosting attorney, banking consultant, and author Walker Todd for a fascinating discussion of the origins and implications of property rights. Drawing from his recent book Progress and Property Rights: From the Greeks to the Magna Carta to the Constitution (ISBN: 0913610690), it's an evening which is sure to be educational, entertaining, and informative.

The event will be held on Thursday, March 4 at the Rex R. Yentes Conference Center located at Webber International University, 1201 N. Scenic Highway, Babson Park, 33827. A "meet, eat, and greet" begins at 6:00pm, followed by the presentation.

The event is free, but tickets are required. Tickets are available at www.progress.eventbrite.com.

Established in 1927 as the first private college chartered under Florida's then new charitable and educational laws and one of the nation's first business schools for women, Webber International University now hosts men and women from some 37 different nations. Recognized as one of only eleven Schools With a Specialty – Business, by the US News and World Reports America's Best Colleges and a Best Southeastern College by The Princeton Review, the SACS and IACBE accredited not-for-profit independent University offers degrees exclusively in the areas of business at the associate's and bachelor's levels (accounting, computer information systems management, corporate communications, finance, hospitality and tourism management, management, marketing, pre-law, security management, and sport management) and at the master's level (MBA, MBA with an emphasis in Accounting, MBA with an emphasis in International Business, MBA with an emphasis in Security Management, and MBA with an emphasis in Sport Management), in traditional, night and weekend, and on-line formats.
