

THE KRAFTY KITTEN November/December Schedule

We wanted to take a moment to let you know how thankful we are to have customers like you. We wish you and your family nothing but the best this Thanksgiving and throughout the holiday season.

As we approach the holiday season, we all get very busy and time seems to slip away. That is also the same for us here at The Krafty Kitten.

Because of the holiday rush, whether it be Thanksgiving preparations or Christmas decorating and shopping, we know how busy you are. That is why we have decided to take some of the stress off of both you and us and we will be changing our November and December schedules.

We will be cutting back on classes during November and December but will be having open stamp / craft time so that you can come in and make your cards and gifts. All you need to do is let me know when you will be coming and if you will need help with a project.

Well, that's it for November and December... for now. Things could change!!

I wanted to get this out to you so that you can plan your schedule. I'll be sending out another newsletter / schedule in December for the upcoming months of Jan/ Feb. so that you can plan...But first...I've got to make Samples!!! lol..

I hope that you have a wonderful Thanksgiving, and hope you are able to spend it with friends and family.

Please feel free to drop me a line with some ideas for classes that you would like to see in the upcoming New Year. I have thoughts of some cool cards, maybe a recipe book ??? one/ month? Would make a great gift for next year!!

They don't have to all be card making, but i'd love to hear your ideas!!!
